

AirPlus & SEB Kort Merger Checklist for Suppliers

The legal merger between AirPlus International GmbH and SEB Kort Bank AB is planned to be completed by 3 August 2026 and will see the absorption of AirPlus International by SEB Kort and the universal transfer of its assets and liabilities.

There will be no changes to our existing agreements. However, the legal merger will result in some other changes that are relevant for your business and will require action from your side. For this purpose, we have prepared this checklist for you to complete on August 3, 2026.

Details	What is changing?	Actions to take
Legal company name	Our legal company name will change from AirPlus International GmbH to SEB Kort Bank AB. Your offers and invoices must be addressed to the respective local branch that you have a contractual relationship with. Branch naming convention: SEB Kort (country), Branch of SEB Kort Bank AB. Example: SEB Kort Germany, Branch of SEB Kort Bank AB.	Update our company name in your systems, and address offers and invoices to the local branch that you have a contractual relationship with.
VAT ID	Our new VAT-ID will change. The new VAT-ID will be DE463428253.	Update our VAT ID in your systems.
Commercial register number	Our new registration number at the commercial register is HRB 58992.	Update your systems to reflect the new commercial register number.